

LOST OR STOLEN PASSPORT REPLACEMENT INSTRUCTIONS

1. File a police report. Get a copy of the report or report number.
2. Contact the Consular Department. If you are a US citizen, you can find this information at <https://travel.state.gov/content/passports/en/country.html>
3. Take a replacement passport photo.
4. Fill out an application for a new passport and a form to report your lost or stolen passport. If you are a US citizen, you can find those forms at <https://www.state.gov/documents/organization/212239.pdf> and <https://www.state.gov/documents/organization/212245.pdf>
5. Bring the following info to the closest embassy:
 - Some form of identification
 - Your new passport photo
 - Your travel itinerary
 - Evidence of US citizenship
 - Your completed application for a new passport and statement regarding your lost or stolen passport

LOST OR STOLEN PASSPORT REPLACEMENT INSTRUCTIONS

1. File a police report. Get a copy of the report or report number.
2. Contact the Consular Department. If you are a US citizen, you can find this information at <https://travel.state.gov/content/passports/en/country.html>
3. Take a replacement passport photo.
4. Fill out an application for a new passport and a form to report your lost or stolen passport. If you are a US citizen, you can find those forms at <https://www.state.gov/documents/organization/212239.pdf> and <https://www.state.gov/documents/organization/212245.pdf>
5. Bring the following info to the closest embassy:
 - Some form of identification
 - Your new passport photo
 - Your travel itinerary
 - Evidence of US citizenship
 - Your completed application for a new passport and statement regarding your lost or stolen passport

LOST OR STOLEN PASSPORT REPLACEMENT INSTRUCTIONS

1. File a police report. Get a copy of the report or report number.
2. Contact the Consular Department. If you are a US citizen, you can find this information at <https://travel.state.gov/content/passports/en/country.html>
3. Take a replacement passport photo.
4. Fill out an application for a new passport and a form to report your lost or stolen passport. If you are a US citizen, you can find those forms at <https://www.state.gov/documents/organization/212239.pdf> and <https://www.state.gov/documents/organization/212245.pdf>
5. Bring the following info to the closest embassy:
 - Some form of identification
 - Your new passport photo
 - Your travel itinerary
 - Evidence of US citizenship
 - Your completed application for a new passport and statement regarding your lost or stolen passport

LOST OR STOLEN PASSPORT REPLACEMENT INSTRUCTIONS

1. File a police report. Get a copy of the report or report number.
2. Contact the Consular Department. If you are a US citizen, you can find this information at <https://travel.state.gov/content/passports/en/country.html>
3. Take a replacement passport photo.
4. Fill out an application for a new passport and a form to report your lost or stolen passport. If you are a US citizen, you can find those forms at <https://www.state.gov/documents/organization/212239.pdf> and <https://www.state.gov/documents/organization/212245.pdf>
5. Bring the following info to the closest embassy:
 - Some form of identification
 - Your new passport photo
 - Your travel itinerary
 - Evidence of US citizenship
 - Your completed application for a new passport and statement regarding your lost or stolen passport